

Huddle Kit

Create Your Collaboration Solution With Ease

Collaboration Ready

Enterprise Grade

3-Year Warranty

Product Overview

In this new hybrid working environment, a versatile and agile solution will be essential to enable on premise employees to share information in real time with remote meeting participants. By pairing Elo's Huddle Kit with an award-winning 4K interactive display, companies can transition back into offices without disruption to productivity.

Setup has never been easier. Simply slide in the computer module, mount your Elo display and attach the Conference Camera and Stylus Kit - all with a single cable to power everything. Now that's collaboration that can scale.

Each kit includes Elo's Conference Camera and i5 Windows 10 Computer Module complete with a pre-loaded intuitive dashboard for easy navigation to the whiteboarding and wireless BYOD content-sharing software. The dashboard also allows for quick access to any 3rd party video conferencing and office productivity software.

All components have been purpose-built to work together, providing users with a turnkey solution driven by a single power supply

Connect teams and information in real time to empower faster, more reliable decision making and collaboration

Software agnostic platform supporting all major web conferencing applications
